Merewether Golf Club - Privacy Policy

Merewether Golf Club is subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988. The Act contains ten National Privacy Principles that set standards for the handling of personal information. Merewether Golf Club has a commitment to privacy and the safeguarding of member, visitor and staff personal information.

Any personal information provided by you to Merewether Golf Club (for example, name, address, date of birth and contact details), will be protected. Merewether Golf Club does not disclose your personal information to any other organisation or person unless there is a legal requirement to do so. Merewether Golf Club may also disclose personal information to relevant authorities if it reasonably believes that there is a threat to an individual's life, health or safety, or public health or safety. If Merewether Golf Club has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being or may be engaged in, personal information may be used or disclosed as a necessary part of any investigation and reporting to relevant persons or authorities.

Merewether Golf Club may disclose your information to third parties that provide services under contract to the club. These contracts require the third party to keep your personal information confidential and secure. Your personal information may be used by Merewether Golf Club for the purposes of improving our services and to provide you with the latest information about those services, any new related services and promotions. If you do not wish to receive information about services and promotions, Merewether Golf Club, on request, will remove your name from mailing lists.

You have a right to access any personal information that Merewether Golf Club may hold about you, including a right of correction of your information. Merewether Golf Club will not charge a fee for you to access your personal information.
